This is why the house always wins.

But 18 plus 18 equals 36, not 38.

What gives?

The green zero and green double zero, of course.

In other words, you have less than 50% of a chance to land on red or black.

You might win your first roll and your second roll.

If you're betting on the spread, one of the teams has to cover.

But you lost the $110 you risked on your Cowboys bet.
