If you want to earn extra money without breaking a sweat, keep scrolling. To save you time and hours of research, I've created this extensive list of online money-making ideas and gigs on the side. All you need to do is set aside some time to read through the list, and I'm pretty confident you'll find one or two you quite like the sound of.

One of the most popular ways to make real money online is through affiliate marketing. 81% of brands and 84% of publishers use the power of affiliate marketing and this statistic is likely to continue as affiliate marketing spending in the US increases every year.

Here are just a few ideas, some of which we'll look at in more detail a little later.

Now let's look at some of the most popular niches for freelancers.

InstaGC: The payment threshold is really low, so you could cash out earnings as small as $1.

Income Potential: Up to $4.3k annually

Level of expertise: Intermediate, expert

$1 a day might not sound like much, but add that up over one year and that's an extra $365 in your pocket. Luckily, there are heaps of legitimate ways to earn that one dollar, and they should take a tremendous amount of time. Survey sites, such as Swagbucks, Zap Surveys, and Branded Surveys, are just a few examples
